第 35~37 題為題組

Dear Simon,

I visited my grandparents this summer and had a wonderful time on their farm. Sometimes I worked with them on the paddies, and sometimes I looked for little animals there and watched them carefully. I watched frogs jumping around, birds flying over the paddies, and bees dancing around flowers. All the animals never failed to entertain me. They brought me lots of surprise and fun.

Every night after dinner, I sat with my grandparents in the living room and listened to my grandfather tell the stories of his life. How I enjoyed them! I always asked him to tell me more.

I love my grandparents, and they love me, too. I always feel happy with them.

I had a great summer vacation. How about you? Write to me soon and tell me about your trip to the U.S.

Emma

35. What does entertain mean?
- (A) To give joy to. (B) To hold. (C) To worry about. (D) To invite.
